I'm bringing a pitchfork with Mitch's name painted on it.

A Mitchfork.

I'm bring an actual pitch fork to serve as the handle on my sign... still pondering the wording. Something like "If you Select Biden without an audit of Dominion voting machines I withdraw my consent and... We are at WAR."

Also for everyone wringing their hands going "DON'T BRING WEAPONS DON'T BE VIOLENT ON THE 6TH REEE OPTICS OPTICS"

You fucking reek of alphabet soup, and possibly glow in the dark.

My message to all of you attending the 6th rally is, don't openly talk about doing those things on the internet. The three letters are watching. As for what you may plan to do.... well... patriots gonna patriot.

We know the 3 letters are watching because the ATF recently leaked a memo that their morale is damaged by us calling them fat.

So assume that three letters are watching. Don't say things you don't want them to know.

More importantly, though, do say things that you do want them to hear. Remind them that they are unamerican pieces of shit, that they are the enemy, that they are incompetent, and that most of all they clearly need to cut back on the donuts. Because they are listening, they know how much we hate them, and it matters.

Might as well drive. Flights are getting expensive. Just be ready to camp or sleep in your car people. Also make sure you get there on at least the 5th if not earlier. Don't plan to arrive on the actual 6th. Shit is going to go down in the morning so make sure you're already there.

I've gone solo to 4 different Stop the Steal rallies in the last 2 months. Every time I chat up the first MAGA patriots I see on the way in, and make new friends all day. Some people I hang with for hours, and a few exchange digits and we keep in touch. I find myself especially talking with older folks, and you could easily find mentor / parental types to adopt you! At least temporarily.
